ADVENT SERVICES

The Advent Services on Monday and Tuesday in our school hall were truly beautiful. The readings, singing and acting helped prepare us all for Christmas. Thank you to all the staff for their hard work and dedication in preparing the children for the services and parents for allowing the children to attend both services at such a busy time. The photographs at the end of the newsletter were taken at the rehearsal in front of Key Stage 1 on Tuesday morning.

Thank you to everyone who donated to our retiring collections after the Key Stage 1 Nativity performances and the Advent services. We raised £423 for Mission Together and our school fund.

Sixteen schools in Surrey took part and St Clement's came third in their group. The children had a fantastic time and thoroughly enjoyed the experience, especially the crossbar challenge and meeting Billy the Badger, Fulham's mascot. Thank you to Mrs Davies and Mr Buckland for accompanying the team.
