Summer Challenges 2018

Name _____

We have set some challenges over the last few summer holidays in an attempt to keep some momentum going with reading and writing in particular.

Summer 2016's challenge was to send a postcard from wherever you visited be it far flung, local, a day out or an extended break. We had a fabulous display of 'Wish you were here!' messages from all around the world; if you would like to send a postcard this year too we would be delighted to receive them in the post!

2017's challenge was to read as many different types of text in as many unusual places as you could – we had hundreds of photos of 'extreme reading' including Mrs James in her wedding dress!

This summer the challenge is to read every day as well as to complete 'Bingo Challenge' – this has some ideas that may add to your enjoyment over the holiday, keep your brain ticking over as well as help keep a healthy body and positive mind-set.

In addition to the challenges we have set you, the library Summer Reading Challenge is taking place and you can also complete the 'Race Across the Galaxy!' challenge set by Change for Life.

When I'm reading, I'm succeeding.....

Can you read for at least 10 minutes every day during the holiday to make sure you continue to be a top reader? You could read fiction or non-fiction books, newspapers, comics, websites, recipes or instruction manuals – the choice is yours!

Either colour, date or put a sticker in a square each time you have read for the day.

If you read every day for 10 minutes, that is only seven hours of reading...you could double it or even triple it!

Bingo Challenge

These are some ideas here to keep you busy and happy during the holiday; some boxes have been left blank for you to set your own imaginative challenge! Try to complete each challenge. Overleaf there is a blank bingo sheet for you to draw a picture or stick on a memento and date the day/s you completed each challenge. Good luck!

1 Memorise a verse from a poem.	2 Handwrite a letter to someone special.	3 Make a den in your house or garden
4	5 Grow something in a pot – perhaps something you can eat.	6 Sort out your toys and books and donate some to charity.
7 Make a picnic and head off somewhere beautiful to eat it.	8 Make up a dance routine to your favourite song.	9 Try a new fruit or vegetable.
10 Practise your 'Skip2bFit' skills regularly.	11 Look at the digits on vehicle number plates – either add or multiply them.	12 Find out about something new that interest you.
13 Bake a cake, scones or biscuits.	14	15 Think of a skill that you want to get better at. Try to improve it.
16 Do something by yourself that you would normally depend on someone else for.	17 Pay a visit to your library; join and complete the Summer Reading Challenge.	18 Go on a really long bike or scooter ride.
19 Stay up late on a warm summer's evening and watch the sunset.	20 Make a daisy chain and give it to someone you care about.	21 Be a nature detective How many birds can you spot and name?
22 When you are sharing fruit, pizza etc talk about the portion sizes in fractions.	23 Learn about a country you would like to visit one day.	24 Use your estimating skills whenever you can for time, weight and other measures.
25 Design a treasure hunt for your family or friends.	26	27 Do something that you have never tried or done before.
